

WIESBADEN WEEKLY

FEBRUARY 10, 2022

HOME.ARMY.MIL/WIESBADEN

News and events from the U.S. Army Garrison Wiesbaden military community in Germany

Garrison's bird strike prevention is keeping Soldiers, aircraft safe

U. S. Army Garrison Wiesbaden Directorate of Public Works has maintained an aviation bird strike prevention program since 2016 and from the records kept on the program, there has been a definite downward trend.

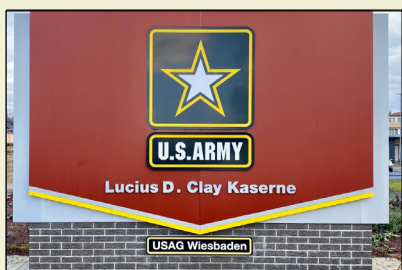

Courtesy Translation: Hessen state government amends Corona Protection Ordinance

Minister President Bouffier: "We are providing relief in trade and events - the protection of citizens continues to be our top priority"

Garrison Wiesbaden quality of life barracks improvements on schedule

The U.S. Army Garrison Wiesbaden Directorate of Public Works has contracted the installation of wall-mounted fans for 1200-series buildings, beginning in Building 1208, as part of the mid-range barracks improvement plan.

New policy outlines off-post uniform wear in Wiesbaden

Gen. Christopher G. Cavoli, commanding general of the U.S. Army Europe and Africa, signed a new fragmentary order on off-post uniform wear Feb. 3, giving authority to component commanders to establish when and where service members can wear their uniforms depending on local force protection measures.

USO celebrates 81st birthday at Clay Kaserne

The local United States Service Organization held a celebration in honor of the USO's 81st anniversary on Feb. 4. USO staff, volunteers, and community members gathered at the U.S. Army Garrison Wiesbaden Welcome Center, on Clay Kaserne to celebrate the occasion.

Wiesbaden Garrison observes Black History Month

The U.S. Army Garrison Wiesbaden celebrated African American Black History Month Feb. 3 at an event hosted by the 66th Military Intelligence Brigade (Theater) at the Stronger Together Café dining facility on Clay Kaserne.

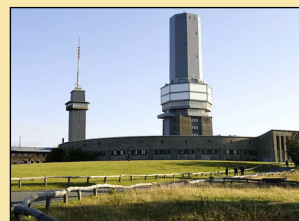

Outdoor adventures at "Großer Feldberg"

One of the most popular attractions to visit in the Rhein-Main region, this 881m-high area of the Taunus offers great views of the region, a multitude of hiking trails, mountain bike trails and many more outdoor activities year-round. Additionally, many winter activities are offered (dependent on weather).

The summit of the mountain can be reached by car and by bus, however, the parking lots nearest to the summit can fill up quickly.

More info HERE

THINGS TO DO IN THE COMMUNITY